

2024 - A Trip Through Anniversaries

2de 1 - année scolaire 2023-2024

Une collaboration européenne

5 classes de lycée :

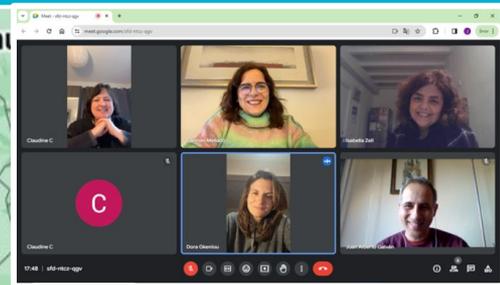

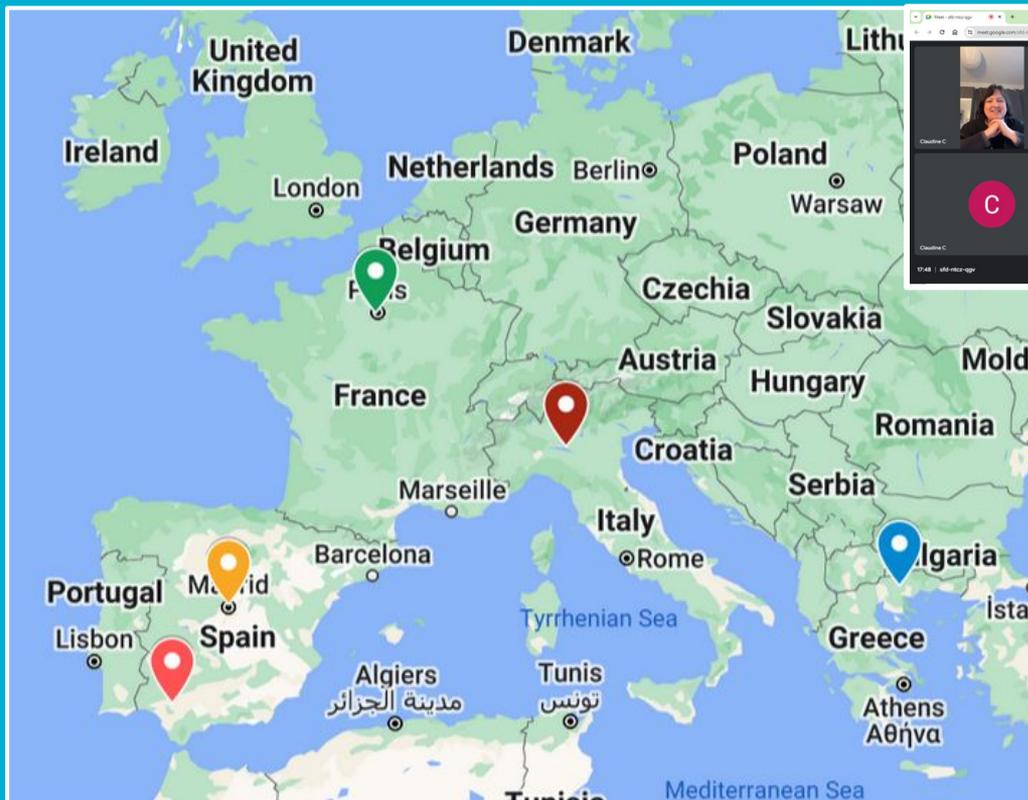

Madrid, Espagne

Séville, Espagne

Cremona, Italie

Serres, Grèce

Vanves, France

Un voyage dans le temps

Les élèves des 5 classes participant à ce projet eTwinning pluridisciplinaire en anglais ont voyagé dans le temps pour célébrer ensemble quelques grandes dates anniversaire :

- le 100ème anniversaire des Jeux Olympiques d'hiver (1924)
- le 90ème anniversaire de la mort de Marie Curie (1934)
- le 70ème anniversaire de la mort de Frida Khalo (1954)
- le 60ème anniversaire des droits civiques aux USA (1964)

Axe du programme : “le passé dans le présent”

D'abord : faire connaissance (qui est qui ?)

... faire plus ample connaissance...

Appel en visio le 19 décembre 2023 :
échanges entre les élèves du Lycée Michelet et du Colegio Montpellier (Madrid).

... et célébrer les fêtes de fin d'année ensemble !

ABOUT ME

Eusebia Katzhoorn Weigman

February 21, 1932 - April 21, 2003

Family

She was the sixth of eight children in a poor family in Taylor, North Carolina. She had one daughter, Lisa, Eusebia Weigman Stewart. She was married twice. Her first husband was Donald Day, and her second husband was Andy Stewart.

Adult life

She had a passion for music and medicine. She studied piano at the college and later at the University of North Carolina. She performed as a child, teaching piano, dance, and theatrical music. Her music often reflected her commitment to civil rights.

Accomplishments

One of her greatest accomplishments in using her music to assist the needs of the victims of the Civil Rights Movement, was like "Knowledgeable Children" in response to the Birmingham church bombing.
